

Draw the Pitch

The image contains several musical exercises for drawing pitch. Each exercise consists of a treble clef staff with a note and a corresponding piano keyboard diagram. The exercises are arranged in a grid-like pattern. The first row has three exercises: a staff with a note on the second line (D4) and a keyboard with the D4 key highlighted in green; a balloon with a note on the second line (D4); a staff with a note on the second space (E4) and a keyboard with the E4 key highlighted in green. The second row has two exercises: a staff with a note on the second space (E4) and an empty keyboard; a staff with a note on the second space (E4) and an empty keyboard. The third row has two exercises: a staff with a note on the second space (E4) and a keyboard with the E4 key highlighted in orange; a staff with a note on the second space (E4) and a keyboard with the E4 key highlighted in green. In the center, there are three balloons with musical notes inside: an orange balloon with a note on the second line (D4), a green balloon with a note on the second space (E4), and a blue balloon with a note on the second space (E4).
